DISMAL DAY AT LOUISVILLE

RACING IS WELL PATRONIZED IN SPITE OF DISAGREEABLE CONDITIONS.

Grover Hughes Wins the Cherokee Selling Stakes and Changes Hands—Loecharles Has Easy Victory in Overnight Handicap.

Louisville, Ky., October 14.—Weather conditions today were the severest since Kentucky fall racing began his season at Lexington. A steady rain began at an early hour this morning and continued without cessation. Considering the impropitious conditions, the attendance at Churchill Downs was remarkably good. The offering in a racing way was a good one, but the bad track, wind, and the heavy fog that enveloped the oval, making it at times difficult to distinguish clearly the running of the races, detracted considerably from the sport. The closing race was run almost in darkness, with the starters resembling fleeting shadows until they neared the grandstand. The fractional time in .is race could not be obtained correctly, so it was dispensed with.

Several run-ups during the afternoon enlivened proceedings. The first followed the Cherokee Selling Stakes, one mile and a sixteenth, and worth $1,140 net to the winner. It was won by Grover Hughes, entered to be sold for $1,200, and after the race he was advanced to $1,900 and bought by Harry Fink, who is said to have been acting for Unidentified owner of Little Panel. Grover Hughes was acquired at Saratoga last summer from F. D. Weir for $1,500, by Weber & Ward, who bid him up $500 over his entered price. Since becoming the property of Weber & Ward, he has won three races, including a stake, and finished second several times. He displayed keen speed this afternoon and won as his rider pleased, with Little Father second and Belle of Bryn Mawr third. Morristown would likely have been a sharp factor in the race but for a bad stumble at the half mile ground, which caused him to skid for nearly twenty yards and eliminated him effectively from contention.

The second run-up followed the fifth race, when Capt. Jim Williams, of Governor Gray and Ram's Horn fame, advanced Martha Lee from her entered price of $500 to $700. Miss Yankee protected him fully with an advance bid of $5. The Yankee establishment Flying Foot made it a double when he led for the entire trip in the closing dash.

The Tyler Hotel Handicap at six furlongs, engaged a good band of sprinters, including Jefferson Livingston's imported Longfellow, winner of seven races in his last nine starts on English tracks. Marco, his rider, could not make him extend himself at any part of the running and he trailed distantly all the way. Buckhorn was the favorite of the race, but ran disappointingly and failed to get any portion of the purse. Loecharles winning as his rider pleased, with Hodge and The Widow Moon fighting it out for the minor portions of the purse.

Royal II, a lashing colt by Your Majesty—Lady Ethel, was another English-bred racer that was making his debut on an American track in the second race. The colt had been showing to better advantage in his private trials than any of the other imported racers of the Livingston establishment and trainer Brandt confidently expected to see him win off by himself, but Loftus handled him unsatisfactorily and took him out of contention immediately after the start. He claimed that he was forced to do it on account of interference. McAdoo took the purse after coming with a big rush in the last furlong to beat Foxy Griff and Nobleman.

In the opener Balgee upset calculations by leading for the entire trip.

Many owners erroneously thought that the proposed racing date would enter into effect today. It will have to lay over for thirty days on account of the amendments made to the rules of introduction at Lexington and will as a result not become operative on Kentucky tracks until next spring, as the Latonia meeting will be over before the expiration of thirty days from yesterday.

E. R. Bradley sold to E. McBride, who came here today from Bowie, the yearling colt by Cunard—Melton Mowbray.

John W. Schorr will campaign a stable of racers the coming winter and the tempting stake list announced for Havana probably will cause him to prepare Luke McLane to run in some of them.

The Charleston Fair and Racin' Association contemplates announcing at least six stakes to be run at Palmetto Park during the period of six weeks preceding the opening of the Havana meet-

WEIGHTS FOR LATONIA INAUGURAL.

Cincinnati, O., October 14.—Secretary E. W. Mangan of the Latonia Jockey Club, arrived here today and made public the weights for the Latonia Autumn Inaugural Handicap, one and one-sixteenth miles, to be run next Monday, the first day of the Latonia meeting, as follows:

Buckhorn, 127; Great Britain, 126; Luke McLuke, 122; Free Lance, 122; Winning Witch, 120; John Gund, 117; Solar Star, 117; Black Toney, 117; Loecharles, 117; Star Jasmine, 114; David Craig, 113; Waterbass, 111; Little Nephew, 110; Lahore, 110; Donair, 107; Kleburne, 107; Leo Skolny, 107; Dr. Samuel, 106; Sleeth, 105; Hawthorn, 105; Clubs, 105; Samson, 103; Judge Wright, 102; Coy Lad, 102; Prince Harris, 102; Jon Deibold, 102; Brookfield, 100; John Furlong, 102; Stepmo, 100; O'Sullivan, 100; Vandergrift, 97; Benet, 97; Impression, 97; Sosius, 95; Christophe, 92; Huntress, 92; Charneuse, 90; Bricket, 88; Barble, 82.

Winners, after publication of weights, 5 lbs. extra. Penalties accrue from 10 a. m., Thursday, October 15.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. W. B., Buffalo, N. Y. The sum due was $7.40.

O. D. M., Cincinnati, O. It was a losing venture. In parlays only the horses named count.

C. P. C., Cleveland, O. In a parlay there must be action in the case of each horse named before the matter is decided. Have no knowledge of any such practice anywhere as that you mention.

A. H. and G. M., Chicago. Backers of Gallant Boy for place in race 17913 won, unless the layer holds to a condition that he only pays on the actual placed horse and his patrons are informed of this.

J. K., Cincinnati, O. If you had examined the Enquirer's Bowie Chart of October 10 carefully you would have found that Amoret, which finished seventh in the third race, was just omitted through a typographical or telegraphic error. No seventh horse is given in the chart. Most certainly Amoret started in the race and finished seventh. He was ridden by J. Connors and was 12 to 1 in the betting.

TROUBADOUR WINS THE CESAREWITCH.

London, Eng., October 14.—At Newmarket today on the second day of Newmarket Second October meeting, the Cesarewitch Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at two miles and a quarter, was won by Sir E. Cassell's three-year-old brown colt Troubadour, by St. Amant—Sonatura, 93 pounds, with E. Hulton's three-year-old brown colt Green Falcon, by Robert le Diable—Greenbird, 95 pounds, second, and F. Luscombe's four-year-old bay filly, Arda, by St. Frusquin—Ardmore, 105 pounds, third. Twenty-one horses ran and the winner was an extreme outsider in the betting.

FRENCH JOCKEY VICTIM OF WAR.

Paris, October 14.—The noted jockey, Alec Carter, a captain in the French dragoons, was killed at the head of his command during a recent engagement. He lay on the battlefield two days before being picked up dead with wounds all over his body. Capt. Carter originally came to France as an Englishman and was naturalized.

PETELUS IS DISQUALIFIED AT LAUREL.

Ruling of Stewards Follows Swerving of W. T. Anderson's Horse in Race at Maryland Course.

Baltimore, Md., October 14.—Capt. E. B. Casatt's Trial by Jury, making his first appearance of the meeting, won the feature race of a good card for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. Carrying top weight of 120 pounds and conceding from two to twenty-seven pounds to the other starters, the Maryland Fair Plate and Prizes, did not an excellent race, running in a drive from Hanson and Sharpshooter, the entry of Suyler L. Parsons. Trial by Jury probably would have won in any event, but he had all the luck in the race. Both Hanson and Sharpshooter were off in the rear and had to work their way up. The winner paid the good price of $18.60 for $2.

Executor was best in the fifth, a selling affair at a mile and he won handily enough, but his owner had to pay $400 to protect his horse, J. W. Hedrick doing the bidding.

The first disqualification of the meeting came with the running of the final dash, in which Petelus was the means of heavy support in the quadrangle.

Uncle Ben and Petelus were running close together when the field turned into the stretch, with Uncle Ben on the inside. Just after they had straightened out Petelus took a swerve and carried Uncle Ben almost to the outer rail, interfering with the latter. Butwell promptly claimed a foul and, after interrogating Schuttinger, who rode Petelus first, J. H. Houghton second and the Rump third.

Jockeys Phil Goldstein and Joe Notter left for the Whitney farm in New Jersey this afternoon. They will assist in the final trials of sixteen yearlings over the track at the farm tomorrow.

Fred Auerbach left for Cincinnati last night to confer with Martin Nathanson over the program book for the meeting at Churchill.

Harry Launder, winner of the opening dash, was bid up $300 over his entered price of $300 by J. W. Hedrick, whose Napier finished second. The horse was best in the fifth, a selling affair at a mile and he won handily enough, but his owner had to pay $400 to protect his horse, J. W. Hedrick doing the bidding.

ENGLAND'S PREMIER RIDER THIS YEAR.

When Kleinfontein carried off the October Handicap at Newmarket September 30, his stable Stephen Donoghue, had ridden his hundredth winner of the year. As Donoghue has never previously reached three figures, even in a complete season, the date will count as a red-letter day in the career of our leading jockey, who is tolerably certain to figure at the head of the list when the final reckoning has to be made.

Donoghue is a native of Ireland, and it was in the Emerald Isle that his early riding took place. He first appeared in the English list of riders in 1909, when his total wins numbered eight. The following season his wins aggregated 27. In 1911 the figure rose to 49; in 1912 it dropped to 41; while last year he finished fifth in the table to Maher, F. Wootton, Whaley, and Wheatley, with 78 to his name.

Among his more important winners may be included Bachelor's Day, in the Jubilee Stakes; Christmas Day, in the Cambridgeshire; Ultimus; Christmas Derby, in the Manchester November Handicap; and China Cock, in the Liverpool Summer Cup; while he was on the track of Lord Amandale when Mr. Raphael's colt ran a dead-heat with Golden Sun in the Steward's Cup, at Goodwood last July.

Donoghue has yet to achieve his first success in a classic race, though but for the enforced withdrawal of The Tetrarch from this year's big events it is highly probable that he would by now have enrolled his name on the classic scroll. It will be recalled that Donoghue was associated with the numerous triumphs of Captain McCalmont's phenomenon last season, and in other circumstances he would have ridden him in his engagements this year. Donoghue however had the satisfaction of riding the colt of Song to victory in the Irish Derby last June. One of the defeated on that occasion was Righ Mor, which is now located at Newmarket, and which somewhat curiously, finished second to Kleinfontein. Sir W. Nelson has first claim on the services of Donoghue, while Persse's stable has second call.—London Sporting Life.

USEFUL AMERICAN HORSE DESTROYED.

The well-known race horse, Election, the property of Col. Story, and trained by J. Dawson at Newmarket, England, split his pastern while at exercise September 30, and was subsequently destroyed.

Election was a seven-year-old by Voter out of Ambrosia, and was bred in the United States. Without attaining to anything approaching greatness, Election on several occasions displayed useful form during the course of a fairly busy career on the turf. As a two-year-old he ran seven times, winning once, his success being recorded in the Rothamstead Selling Plate at Hemel Hempstead, being subsequently bought in for 400 guineas. In his second season he made ten appearances, again placing one win to his credit, account by defeating a useful hand in the Bedford Plate at Newmarket, and so on. As a four-year-old he won the Prince of Wales's Selling Plate at Leicester, being retained at 600 guineas. His remaining twelve efforts were all unsuccessful, though he ran second on no fewer than five occasions.

The following season he did considerably better, winning twice, dead-heating for first place once, and being placed seven times, as the result of fourteen appearances. His victories were scored in the Sherdley Gold Cup at Haydock Park and the Ebor Handicap at York, in which, carrying 102 pounds, and ridden by W. Huxley, he defeated Myrona, Bowman, King William (which started favorite), and a half dozen others; while he ran a dead-heat with St. Crispin in the Atherton Plate at Leicester. Last year he performed but moderately, taking part in ten races without once being placed.

This season he had been seen out on seven occasions, winning the Visitors' Handicap at the Newmarket First Spring Meeting, and incidentally upsetting the odds laid on Gotham. Altogether Election ran in sixty-one races, of which he won seven, while he was placed in nineteen and unplaced in thirty-five.

BELGIAN HORSES SAFE IN ENGLAND.

Among the Belgian owners who have managed to get away from Belgium with some of their horses is Mr. Lucien Niguet, who is now located at Epsom, just door to William Nightingale, with a half dozen horses, of which five are two-year-olds, the other being Hey Diddle Diddle. Mr. Niguet is fond in his praise of Mr. Walter Hyde, who put up his horses temporarily at Kempton Park, and did him a further good turn by introducing him to W. Nightingale, who has found him his present accommodation. Indeed, like all other Belgians forced to come to our country, Mr. Niguet is charmed with everything and everybody. Mr. E. Mathieu has also turned out of thirty horses at Epsom under the care of Gruny, who expects eight or ten more shortly, while Sir Charles Nugent has four or five Belgian horses belonging to Mr. de Neuter and Mr. Margueret at Bourton-on-the-Hill, Baron Landen and Mr. Loewenstein have brought over nearly a dozen horses, whose destination is the stables of Charles Wood at Jevington. Grundy's horses will in all probability be devoted to racing over hurdles, but it will be some time before any of the strangers will be fit, as it has been impossible to gallop them for several weeks. Many horses were requisitioned by the Belgian government, and it was only from the fact that the Ostend meetings had just started, causing most of the horses in Belgium to be near waterplants, that they did not fall into the hands of the Germans. Tave, belonging to Mr. de Preille de la Nieppe, is spoken of as a good horse, and may be placed under the management of Mr. Misra, Rural and Varus, the property of Baron Landen and Mr. Loewenstein respectively, are also regarded as useful.—London Sportsman.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Virginia Lass, a three-year-old by Aeronaut-Corker, broke a leg while racing at Belmont Park Terminal last Saturday and was destroyed.

A petition to set aside the will of Curtis A. Gunn was filed by the widow yesterday in the Chicago Probate court. Letters of administration were filed by Mrs. Gunn in an effort to collect the estate, valued at $330,000 which was left on the death of her husband a few weeks ago. The widow objects to that part of the will in which is bequeathed $50,000 to Pluma E. Gunn Rodgers, a grandniece, and also to several smaller amounts to relatives and friends.
